Due to COVID-19 and the Delta Variant, worldwide manufacturing and supply chains have been significantly impacted. This impact is being felt in our industry and many other industries - as you have experienced recently. Unless your order is available for immediate delivery and scheduling today, please understand that we are unable to provide even an estimate of when your product may arrive. We must also be transparent that some products may take as long as 6 months, possibly longer (due to such factors as factory closures, parts availability, port delays, container shortages, raw material shortages). We trust that you recognize that the livelihood of our employees hinges on getting your product to you as soon as humanly possible and we are doing everything in our control to influence this outcome.

Sales Order Terms and Conditions

Congratulations on your outstanding selection! To help us provide you with the great service you deserve, please review the following:

Due to COVID-19 and the Delta Variant, worldwide manufacturing and supply chains have been significantly impacted. This impact is being felt in our industry and many other industries - as you have experienced recently. Unless your order is available for immediate delivery and scheduling today, please understand that we are unable to provide even an estimate of when your product may arrive. We must also be transparent that some products may take as long as 6 months, possibly longer (due to such factors as factory closures, parts availability, port delays, container shortages, raw material shortages). We trust that you recognize that the livelihood of our employees hinges on getting your product to you as soon as humanly possible and we are doing everything in our control to influence this outcome.

We have sophisticated software that will review your order daily. Once your product is available for delivery, we will contact you immediately to schedule.

After completing your purchase, you will receive an invitation to receive text messages from Ashley HomeStore so we can provide you with updates on your order and schedule you as promptly as possible. It is critical to accept this invitation as it is the only platform that allows us to update you accurately and in a timely fashion. Please understand that we are unable to provide updates or estimates on your order other than what is communicated via this text platform.

Order Changes, Cancellations, and Returns

Changes to your order, including cancellation, can be made within three (3) days of your purchase provided that fulfillment has not yet occurred. A 10% fee will occur for changes made more than three (3) days after your purchase. If a redelivery is needed, a $79 fee will apply.

If a change is required after the delivery has been attempted (e.g. merchandise does not fit, incorrect color, size, configuration, quantity of merchandise, incorrect delivery address, etc.) a 10% restocking fee will apply.

Requests to change your delivery date can be made up to two (2) days prior to your scheduled delivery. Otherwise, a $79 rescheduling fee will apply.

Exceptions to returns:

- Delivery fees are not refundable.
- Mattresses, foundations, adjustable bases, Bunkie boards, metal rails, pillows, bed linens, mattress protectors, rugs, accessories, showroom merchandise, and clearance items are not returnable and do not qualify for a refund.
- A $99.99 fee will apply for all 90 Night Comfort Guarantee claims.

All order change, cancellation, and return requests can be reported to Customer Care at (803) 228-4848.

Premium Home Delivery (Ashley DASH) and Warehouse Pick-Up

Please inspect the condition of your merchandise upon delivery/pick-up. Claims or conditions with merchandise must be reported to Customer Care at (803) 228-4848 at the time of delivery or within one (1) day of pick-up.

There are no returns/refunds allowed. Once the delivery/pick-up is accepted, (unless an additional protection plan is purchased) a manufacturer's warranty applies.

I have read the terms and conditions outlined above. I accept and agree to all its terms and conditions.
